

ARDS
st inspiring ties with us at d free of charge mony.

September 2021

by Humanities Montana bit.ly/GHARegistration

SAVE THE DATE

2021 GOVERNOR'S HUMANITIES AWARDS

Please join us virtually this September for the Celebrate some of Montana's most inspiring advocates for the public humanities with us at our first ever fully accessible and free of charge virtual awards ceremony.

Thursday at 6pm	30	September 2021
--------------------	----	-------------------

hosted virtually by Humanities Montana register at: bit.ly/GHARegistration

Meet the 2021 Governor's Humanities Award Recipients

Dorothy Bradley, Clyde Park.
Former state legislator, community leader, and retired teacher, editor of To Make a Better Place essay collection

Dr. Janine Pease, Crow Agency.
education administrator and scholar; advocate for American rights and languages; founding president of college of five books including the World, Ourselves

Meet the 2021 Governor's Humanities Award Recipients

Dorothy Bradley, Clyde Park.
Former state legislator, community leader, and retired
teacher, editor of To Make a Better Place essay collection

Pease, Crow Agency.
education administrator and scholar; advocate for American rights and languages; founding president of including

-ees

Native
Little Big Ho

Jim Robbins, Helena.
Science writer and journalist, author of The Wonder of Birds: What they Tell Us and a Better Future

James Scott, Billings.
Retired Board Chair of First Interstate Bank System, philanthropist and community advocate

Chrysi Smith, Belgrade.
Author and host of the public radio program
Chrysi the Wordsmith

QUESTIONS?
(406) 243-6022

info@humanitiesmontana.org www.humanitiesmontana.org

SAVE T
Please join us vir
2021 G
HUMA
Celebrate advocates
our first