38 ISSUES OF DIGITAL & DIY HUMANITIES.
KEEPING US CONNECTED. THANK YOU.*

Dear First Name,

We know 2020 was a hard year for many people financially, but we're grateful for the many other ways you showed your support this year. The 2020 Humanities Montana Annual Report is in celebration of you.

Your support helped us continue to serve communities through stories and conversation, even during a global pandemic. As you take a moment to review the Annual Report and explore our impact, you will see how you empowered us to continue delivering quality humanities programs and critically needed grants throughout Montana.

2020 was also a momentous year. It brought countless new milestones, for you and for us, and we believe milestones are worth remembering. In our 49-year history of serving Montana, 2020 marked:

- A cultural crisis with nearly 77% of cultural institutions reporting being in danger of closing.
- The first time Humanities Montana granted more than $500,000; all grant recipients were able to continue serving their communities.
- A re-imagining of our programs, reaching nearly 1/3 of our audience virtually.

Thank you for believing in the mission of Humanities Montana and aiding us as we supported Montana's cultural infrastructure and connected Montanans.

With gratitude,

Your friends at Humanities Montana

P.S. Occasionally Humanities Montana likes to send updates the old-fashioned way. If you would like to hear from us in your mailbox please update your physical address here.
